

Brooks Blair

I am 16 and work on the Youth Conservation Crew in Northern NM. I am scared for my future if AI data centers continue to be built. We will run out of clean drinking water. These decisions now, will impact young people my age, and my children most. Please consider future generations and how we will cope without clean drinking water 10, 20, 100 years from now.