

Michael Nutkiewicz

I urge you in the strongest possible terms to reject permits that allow the Jupiter Project to move forward. The toll on the environment and natural resources, and the fact that most data centers actually do not create significant number of jobs, among other factors, calls for commonsense rejection of Project Jupiter.