

anonymous anonymous

You need to give the public at least sixty days to make a comment. This project is not only harmful, but environmental racism. Residents in that county are already impacted by pollution at a higher rate than their white counterparts. You have a chance to stop it. We don't need a data center that large nor do we need one at all. It is a sign of greed and racism. Two things we don't need