

Maria Montoya

As an OBGYN, the data is clear, projects like this will worsen health outcomes for the surrounding community. The increased heat and air pollution is linked to preterm birth, infertility, preeclampsia and stillbirth.

Our community should not sustain this project which will harm vulnerable communities.