

Chris Taylor

I am writing to express my disgust for Project Jupiter, which I believe is nothing more than a concentration camp for our personal information and digital identities.

George Orwell would be proud of this project, and we the people can see right through the blatant propaganda about project Jupiter.

I urge the New Mexico Environment Department to reject this oppressive project.

Sincerely,
CT