

Sendilkumat Akhil

The proposed data center is an absolute climate disaster that relies on already depleted water sources. It will only be a burden to the community and impact the health and wellbeing for residents in exchange for virtually no value.