

James Mar

As a resident and citizen of New Mexico I am 100% against using our limited resources to support a data center. With the ongoing drought and uncertainty over future weather patterns it is imprudent to support these type of resource intensive projects regardless of potential tax income. No to Yucca Growth Infrastructure.