

Rachel Funk

I am really against the construction on Project Jupiter. We don't need more data bases. We need access to clean resources like clean water and air. With the Rio Grande being completely dried up, where will the water come from?? People first over data bases. Period