

Alma Gonzalez

I would implore Dona Ana County to reject this Air Permit and put the health and quality of life of New Mexicans first before a company and profits. The water usage that the data centers require is far too high and would put New Mexicans at risk.