

Dar Demchenko

I can't stop thinking about this project. It's so inhumane to continue polluting the world we all live in. Every hectare of land and resource is important and should not be wasted. So I am against this project - it is inhumane and does not take into account the future of the planet at all.