

Anonymous Anonymous

I hope me and the others signing this petition lead to the elimination of this data center. If this data center is put up the people around it, the animals that use this space, and water in the area will all be affected more than global warming has already affected them. Stop killing our planet. We only have one world and if you continue to kill it more than we already have than you must have no soul.