

Zoe Burke

I vehemently oppose Project Jupiter. It will cause untold ecological damage in our already fragile state and statistics have shown will worsen the current severe drought and constant heatwave. This company is also severely lacking in transparency in its plans and the actual impact on our communities; additionally, until the data center moratorium passes or not, progress should not be made on ANY such projects and it's quite telling that this is being rushed.