

Cyrus Jordan

This permit needs to be denied, we do not need a massive data center taxing New Mexico already limited resources, using up precious water, release more pollution into our already polluted air. And further selling off our beautiful land to corporate greed. The AI gold rush is just the latest version of corporate greed trying to win out over sustainability, local and native wishes, and long term mind sets over short term gain.