

Domonic Jimenez

Project Jupiter is an ecological disaster waiting to happen. The impacts it will have on our air, water and public health will deplete and already stressed community. I am strongly opposed to the creation of this data center and all data centers in this region. If developers wish to continue then the city, county, and state should let the public vote on it. Host a ballot measure that every citizen votes for.