

JACQUIE CHILTON

This project is a climate disaster and we should we making decisions to help reduce and improve our climate impact not make it worse. Furthermore, these data centres negatively affect the water of surrounding towns and communities making it unsafe and dangerous to drink. They also cause noise pollution.