

Isabella Lanier

Installing a data center here in New Mexico is insanely cruel to the people that live here. We are already struggling as it is with our limited resources and giving them all to a data center is not going to benefit us at ALL. We deserve clean air, and we deserve clean water, NOT to have our land and resources taken to support a project that is going to do more harm than good.