

anonymous anonymous

I do not want to see data centers taking up the beautiful, historic, agricultural land that is in New Mexico. I am also concerned that this data centers will use up drinking water, which would impact every single New Mexicans life negatively. New Mexico does NOT need a data center this large.