

Julius Miles

This project should be rejected. It's a huge drain on power and water resources and will hurt the environment and local communities.