

Marshall Broyles

As a lifelong resident of New Mexico I believe Project Jupiter to be an extreme waste of resources for the state I dearly love. I encourage NMED to reject the permit for this project in honor of future generations. Let NM be an example for the nation that our water is sacred and finite and our air should be free of pollutants that would be caused by Project Jupiter.