

Soleil Burgess

I strongly oppose. This permit should be denied. Not only has one of the groups involved already been cited with fines for biohazardous waste mismanagement, this is just perpetuating environmental racism by putting these data centers in predominately brown and poor areas. This is not what the New Mexico community needs.