

Mars Pedroza

I absolutely do not want this data center built. The state I live in is already on fire and that's without another data center. We don't need another, no one WANTS another.