

Sydrae Sanchez

I am opposed to project Jupiter and I hope the NMED rejects these air permits. What makes anyone think that this project will be any different than the other water guzzling, air and sound polluting data centers that have popped up around the country? At some point, we have to think about the actual health of our community over some cash in the pockets of a few.