

Gael Whettnall

Please object to Project Jupiter (or any future data centers) located in New Mexico. They will consume considerable natural resources while providing little to no return for local New Mexicans. Thank you for listening and acting on behalf of the future generations!