

Paula Johnson

I am vehemently opposed to this project! I think it's an energy drain, a strain on our limited water and electricity which will undoubtedly will cause our bills to skyrocket. I believe it will be a drain on our environment, our resources and ultimately our finances.