

Zinnia Kelly

There is no good reason to build anything related to a data center in a state this desperate for water. The only thing this project will bring is further immiseration of the populace and even hotter summers. We need this funding for proper water reclamation and environmental projects, not more propagandistic data centers!