

Stephen Schmidt

I do not want to see NM become a dumping ground for the nations nuclear waste without input by the public and not just when the permit is up for renewal. Permit length should be shortened so as things change on the ground things provided by the permit are not locked in for 40, 50 or 60 years. There must be more of an attempt to reach the public which includes reaching out to Spanish and Native American speakers.