

Stephanie Darrow

WIPP Renewal Draft Permit.

There should be testing daily on air and water quality and readings for radiation DAILY. These readings should be published for public consumption weekly so citizens can have knowledge of what is going on. Any leaks or change should be announced at the time and public should have access to facts (the whole state and surrounding states and countries).