

John Goshen

I strongly support renewing the permit for WIPP. The facility has a superb operating and safety record. It is the most cost effective and safe way of disposing of / storing low level nuclear waste. Safe transportation routes to the facility have also been maintained.