

Katie Gillis

First, we have to stop producing nuclear waste,

Secpnd, there is no gauranteed SAFE place to store it, but deep underground,nott near a fault line,with the least likely water contamination potential, and proper routine inspection is mandatory.

If NM site meets these criteria, may be the most safe place,especially since Nevada is not!!!! We have few options.