

William Hicks

I live in Lea County and I am pleased with the operations at the WIPP site. I support continued operations and potentially expansion of operations. I would not support more restrictive permit language that would hinder the quality of work, and important work at WIPP