

Ava Curtis

NMED's move to move LANL waste to WIPP is essential to keep communities downstream, like where I live in Albuquerque safe. This will prevent accidents and reduce the risk wildfire poses to the waste.