

Allison Lemons

It is disgraceful that LANL still has legacy waste stored in Los Alamos since 1943, that is for 83 years! That waste should have been disposed of decades ago. For the health and safety of all the people living within 100 miles of LANL, and all those communities downstream from it, please implement the NMED AIM WIPP Permit Modification.