

Catherine Lagarde

I support NMED's modified permit to move all LANL's legacy waste to WIPP. Nuclear waste isn't protected from a wildfire by storing it in plasticized canvas tents. The Defense Nuclear Facilities Safety Board says the tents are not meant to protect the waste against fire, yet fire is the most likely danger to the waste in these tents.