

Jody Williams

This change obviously has political motivations driving it.

I am a WIPP employee. WIPP is critical to safely disposing of defense related waste. Restricting shipments or reducing throughput will not eliminate waste. It will create backlogs and recreate legacy waste problems across the country.

I support cleanup at LANL, but the proposed permit changes should not limit other sites from shipping waste. Please ensure the permit supports a steady and balanced flow of waste to WIPP.