

William Hill III

You really need to get your priorities straightened out and concentrate on cleaning up ALL your legacy waste before you do anything else.

Look at the science and be responsible, for once.