

Pamela Gilchrist

DOE hasn't completed the original mission it was given to clean up Cold War waste at LANL and move it to WIPP. This is UNACCEPTABLE. Now it wants to start a new mission (new plutonium pits) without being required to clean up the mess it made in the 1950s. NMED's modification of the permit to force DOE to correct this failure is absolutely appropriate.