

Meredith Bunting

It is high time that LANL comply with all previous agreements and moves the hazardous waste, where they agreed to put it, at WIPP, to get it away from exposure to wildfires and natural seepage.