

Amanda Nathan

Please adopt the proposed amendment. Unbeknownst to my husband and I, we recently downsized to a home less than two miles from a concrete batch plant, which has recently reapplied for its permit. It is half a mile from the beginning of residential neighborhoods and we are extremely concerned about the air quality.