

Donna Stevens

Please consider any proposal to stop fracking until it can be prevented from causing air pollution. As an individual suffering greatly from asthma and allergies, especially from the area air pollution, we must have a comprehensive plan to improve our air quality. Individuals like myself and my grandchildren will continue to suffer is nothing is done..