

Emily Weems

I am urging the TCEQ to implement the strictest parameters to help bring HGB area into alignment with federal air quality acts. Air quality is a public health issue and it's the responsible of this Commission to protect the public from industries that harm the environment in order to make a profit. I want my sons to be outdoors as much as possible.