

James Goff

As a station owner, I strongly encourage lawmakers to allow us to increase the price of emissions testing. There has not been a price increase since I entered this business in 2016, but the cost of the machines, repair and maintenance, paper, ink and ESPECIALLY payroll for licensed inspectors has increased as much as 60% in some cases.