

Pierre Elbayeh

I am an inspection station owner it is very important to keep this program efficient and contribute to the safety of our roads to increase the inspection fees so we can afford good inspectors and to meet the rise of the cost of living. It is very hard to keep our shops open for inspection at the current rate.