

Richard Morin

I do believe the state inspection price should be raised. If you figure out how much it cost a shop to do one inspection the time of the tech doing it and what you're paying that tech and equipment cost and upkeep is all on the shop. The 25.50 we charge is not cutting it. No more. When y'all took away the stickers we lost money.