

david terry

The cost of living has increased over 26 %. Wages have increased more than that. The emission fee has remained the same. When stations begin to drop the program, the remaining stations will become overloaded.