

Rupert Torres

It is very important and tremendous need to increase the Emission Test fee. Inflation is going from bad to worst. All the prices to run a shop have gone up, including rent, paper, ink, wages, analyzer parts, analyzer service fees, internet, etc. The worst part is to provide a service at a price that you cannot control. All we ask is to increase the emission test fee to be able to continue to provide this valuable service.