

Lisa Duke

It is imperative that TCEQ develops a state plan that is at least as protective as the current EPA standards. Arlington has 400 gas wells at 50 drill sites. I am extremely concerned about the severe pollution these sites produce. If methane emissions aren't limited, the hope of our area reaching our climate goals are much more difficult.