

Patrick Ellis

I am a senior citizen with allergies and eye problems. I believe both of these conditions will be aggravated by an operating batch plant in our neighborhood. We also have a school nearby and I believe the dust created by the batch plant could create health problems for the children.