

Jenny Carpenter

I am a senior citizen with mild allergies that I don't want to get worse. I live in a 55 and up community in Alamo, TX and many of our residents have breathing and lung problems. The dust created by a Batch Plant could aggravate all of these. In addition, there is a school very near the proposed Batch Plant. The dust from the plant could be very problematic for children with allergies and asthma.