

Jacob Franklin

This rule is designed to allow private corporations to pollute without having to pay the meager fines that they already ignore. This is nothing more than a transfer of wealth from taxpayers to the corporations that are destroying our planet and collapsing our ecosystems. Do not pass this rule if you care about the environment or want to avoid massive pressure from the common people.