

Edward Macleod

I strongly object to the passage of this provision. The net effect is to tax the taxpayer, not the offending polluting companies. No good can come of this, except for the polluters.